

Springville Family History Center

415 South 200 East, Springville, Utah – 801-489-2956 – springvillefamilyhistorycenter.org

SEPTEMBER CLASSES

All Classes are BEGINNING LEVEL unless otherwise stated.

Date & Time	Class – Description	Location	Instructor
Thursday 1 Sep 2016 7:00 PM	Getting Started in Family History: Learn how to get started doing your family history.	Downstairs Classroom	Shirley Smith
Monday - 5 September Closed for Labor Day
Wednesday 7 September 12:00 Noon	Brown Bag Webinar Best Websites and Apps for Finding Local History: They say that all history is local. To better understand our ancestors' lives, we need to understand the time and place that they lived. Developers are utilizing new technologies to bring the past to life. This session will review some of the best websites and apps for discovering local history.	Upstairs Classroom	Amy Crow
Thursday 8 September 7:00 PM	Overview of FamilySearch: An introduction to FamilySearch.org	Downstairs Classroom	Sara Bird
Monday 12 September 10:00 AM	Workshop Application of the Research Process, Part 1: A three part series learning how to research using the research process is and how to apply it.	Downstairs Classroom / Computer Lab	Sara Bird
Wednesday 14 September 12:00 Noon	Brown Bag Webinar Virtual Family Reunions: Is your family too dispersed to gather everyone in the same place for a family reunion? It's not always easy to get all the family together. Hold a virtual family reunion to maintain and strengthen family ties. Learn about several online tools to help your family meet often and hold virtual family reunions. It also suggests five ways to get family members enthusiastically involved	Upstairs Classroom	Joseph Richardson
Thursday 15 September 7:00 PM	Overview of Ancestry.com: An introduction to Ancestry.com.	Downstairs Classroom	Lucinda White
Monday 19 September 10:00 AM	Workshop Application of the Research Process, Part 2: A three part series learning how to research using the research process is and how to apply it.	Downstairs Classroom / Computer Lab	Sara Bird

Wednesday 21 September 12:00 Noon	Brown Bag Webinar Proven Methodology for Using Google for Genealogy: Bring method to the madness of millions of results with this tried and true methodology for using Google for your genealogy research.	Upstairs Classroom	Lisa Louise Cooke
Thursday 22 September 7:00 PM	Temple Work Basics: An Introduction to temple work.	Downstairs Classroom	Diane Smith
Monday 26 September 10:00 AM	Workshop Application of the Research Process, Part 3 A three part series learning how to research using the research process is and how to apply it.	Downstairs Classroom / Computer Lab	Sara Bird
Wednesday 28 September 12:00 Noon	Brown Bag Webinar Cemetery Crowdsourcing: Cemeteries are often an invaluable resource for a genealogist. The important records found in cemeteries and cemetery offices have never been more readily available than they are at present and, with many community and crowdsourcing movements underway, the number of available records are growing exponentially every day. Learn how to contribute to these invaluable collections - and learn how to use the most popular graveyard/cemetery websites. We'll explore BillionGraves, FindAGrave, mobile apps, programs and strategies to further your own family history via cemetery research.	Upstairs Classroom	Michael Cassara
Thursday 29 September 7:00 PM	Sara's Favorite Tips, Tricks and Shortcuts	Downstairs Classroom	Sara Bird

Visit our website: springvillefamilyhistorycenter.org to request a class, see our calendar, schedule a group class, or see what classes other family history centers are offering.

* Workshops last 2 hours, the first hour is instruction and the second hour is hands-on-learning. It's a good idea to bring your own family history to work on.

Brown Bag Webinar: A webinar is video presentation and is shown at the Family History Center. Participants are welcome to bring a lunch or snack to enjoy during the webinar.